

Baby Book Project

You will design and create a baby book that discusses many aspects of personal development during the first year of life. Follow the guidelines below, in exactly the same order, to create your baby book. This is a decorative assignment. Your baby book should not only contain personal and factual information, but it should also be decorative and unique to your personality. All pages require pictures and décor (clip art, drawings, stamps or stickers.) Number pages in the bottom corner to correspond with the page numbers below.
